The Weekly News and Regiſter.

LONDON, FRIDAY, September 25, 1730. NUMB. XXIV.

FRIDAY, September 18.

IT may not be amiſs to inform ſuch of " our Readers as may be unacquainted " therewith, that the ſo-much-noiſed " Knack of making Iron, &c. with " Sea-Coal, &c. is ſo far from being " a new Invention, as has been impoſed " on moſt People, that it is no other " than an antiquated Bubble of fourſcore " Years ſtanding; a 14 Years Patent having, by Parliament, " been granted for the very ſame Purpoſe, in 1651, to " Jeremy Buck, of Minchinghampton in Glouceſterſhire, Eſq; " as may be ſeen in the Collection of Acts and Ordinances " of Parliament, publiſhed, in 1658, by Hen. Scobell, Eſq; " then Clerk of the Parliament."

The 18 Spaniſh Men-of-War, mentioned in our laſt to have Orders to quit the Road of Barcelona (where they lay, without the Tranſports, ſeemingly to watch that none of them gave them the Slip) actually ſailed thence the 30th paſt, O. S. and, as is ſtrongly preſumed, are to Winter at Cadiz: Which ſcarce leaves any Doubt of the Italian Expedition's being over for this Seaſon.

Yeſterday was held a General Court of the Bank of England, at which a Dividend of 2¼ per Cent. for the Half Year, ending at Michaelmas next, was agreed to; the Warrants to be delivered on the 14th of October, or ſooner, if ready.

The Governor, Sam. Holden, Eſq; addreſſing himſelf to the General Court, ſaid as follows: " None, who will " pleaſe to recollect what was told them on the laſt of theſe " Occaſions, but muſt have expected this Alteration.—— " Tho' your Affairs will not admit a ſtated Dividend of 3 " per Cent. I am to aſſure you from your Court of Direc- " tors, that ſo often as they will it ſhall with great Satiſ- " faction be repeated by them."

The Account in our laſt of the Inſurrection of the Negroes in Virginia, is confirmed by other Letters; and Capt. Wills of the Amity, as he was coming from thence, diſcovered a Negro who hid himſelf in his Ship; and being examined how he came on board, ſaid, " He was going Em- " baſſador from the Negroes to his Majeſty K. George." However, his pretended Excellency was turned aſhore, and whipped through every County to the Place from whence he came.

A great Number of Felons, caſt for Tranſportation at the Aſſizes in divers Counties have been lately brought to Town and put on board; and laſt Sunday the Ship fell down to Graveſend. And there being a ſufficient Cargo for the preſent, it is ſaid the Felons in Newgate, ordered for Tranſportation, will not be ſhipped off till after next Seſſions.

The noted Madam Muffet, ſo well known in the Hundreds of Drury, who, ſome Days paſt, was, by Sir John Gonſon and eight others of the Weſtminſter Juſtices of the Committee, with divers others as good as herſelf, tho' none ſo fine, caged up in Tothill-Bridewell, and obliged to earn her daily Food in a Manner quite different from what ſhe had been accuſtomed to, or indeed approved of, having procured his Majeſty's Writ of Habeas Corpus, got herſelf Yeſterday carried before the L. C. J. Raymond, in Serjeant's-Inn, Chancery-Lane, little doubting her Admittance to Bail or immediate Diſcharge; as had been inſinuated. But his Ldſhip thought proper to remand her to the Place from whence ſhe laſt came; and we hear particular Care is taken that her Ladyſhip ſhall not eat the Bread of Idleneſs. We are alſo informed, that this worthy Gentlewoman likes her preſent Apartment and Employment ſo ill, as having a remarkable Averſion to ſuch toilſome Exerciſes, that tho' in Compariſon to all the reſt ſhe appears like a very Empreſs in her coſtly laced Habit, ſhe inceſſantly pours out whole Vollies of Execrations againſt certain Perſons whom ſhe had paid for putting her in Hopes of a ſpeedy Releaſe from thoſe Tribulations; nor is ſhe unmindful in her Prayers to beſtow certain pathetic Ejaculations with regard to the bad Taſte of ſuch of her Puritanical Neighbours, as had complained to the Bench of Juſtices of her Irregularities.

As the Governors of the Charter-Houſe are moſtly Noblemen and others of great Diſtinction, and now at their Country Seats, it is preſumed a Phyſician will not ſpeedily be choſen in the room of Dr. Beale deceaſed: There are, we hear, divers Candidates.

Caſual. Laſt Wedneſday, the Relict of Mr. Sedgwick, late City Chimney-Sweeper, being in a deſponding State, hanged herſelf at her Abode in Coleman-Street, Pref. The ſame Day, Rich. Sommers, of Kent, Eſq; kiſſed their Majeſties Hands, on his being appointed one of the Commiſſioners of the Exciſe in Scotland, in the room of David Role, Eſq; lately made one of the Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms for that Part of Great-Britain.

Mar. A Treaty of Marriage is on Foot, and will be ſpeedily conſummated, between——North of Glenham-Hall in Norfolk, Eſq; a Gentleman of a plentiful Eſtate, and the Lady Barbara Herbert, youngeſt Daughter of the R. Hon. the E. of Pembroke.——Wedneſday laſt, Mr. Brace, a noted Attorney in Milk-Street, was married, at the new Church in Spittle-Fields, to Miſs Dunn of the ſame Street; with whom he has a handſome Fortune.

Deaths. The 10th Inſt. died Hen. Heron of Creſſey, near Boſton in Lincolnſhire, Eſq; formerly Knight of the Shire for the ſaid County.——As did laſt Wedneſday Night, in Lime-Street, the Wife of Tho. Granges, Eſq; Secretary of the Committee of Private Trade of the E. India Company.

SATURDAY, September 19.

From Dublin we learn; that the young Woman of College-Green, intimated in our laſt to have been ſo miſuſed by four young Gentlemen (I beg their Pardon, Scoundrels I ſhould have ſaid) is not yet dead; but her Shop continues ſhut, and ſhe lies in a moſt languiſhing Condition.—— A few Nights paſt, a couple of Pick-pockets quarreling under the Market Houſe in the ſame City, one ſtabbed the other ſo in earneſt that he ſurvived it but ſome Moments. ——Alſo a Tradeſman paſſing along St. Thomas's Street was ſtabbed dead by other ſuch Villains. And near Tallow a Man was ſtabbed dead by none knows what Villains: And another at Clandalkin Race by one Tigar, now in Cuſtody. ——Now for the other Sex; a Beggar-Woman is taken up, for ſtealing a Child and blinding it, to move Compaſſion.

The E. India Company bought up a great Quantity of White Broad-Cloths; which being ſo beneficial a Branch of the Trade of this Nation, it is not doubted but other Companies will follow their Example.

From Bruſſels, under the 22d Inſt. N. S. they write, that the Oſtender, under Poliſh Colours, taken by the Engliſh in Bengal River, had on board only ſome Salt-Petre and Shells of ſmall Account; and they pretend, that they ventured it merely to try the Paſſage; the other Ships being to have followed, had ſhe ſucceeded. However, the Oſtend Company's Actions are ſince fallen to 70 per Cent.

We have the Detail of a merry Adventure from the Hague, under the 15th Inſt. N. S. which the Writer ſays made abundance of People very merry. A Gentleman of Gelderland, whoſe Purſe it ſeems is none of the longeſt, entertained at Board, Lodging, &c. a very pretty Laſs, till in ſhort he could not keep her any longer. But as he dearly loved her, nor was the Damſel a Jott behind-hand in her Affection (which you will ſay is a Rarity, eſpecially when the Gallant's Coin begins to diſappear) they could not bear the Thoughts of parting. Our Lover ſoon pitched on a ſure Method of keeping his dear Girl without maintaining her, which was by placing her Chamber-Maid to the Counteſs——, who readily took her on his Recommendation. Thus he had daily Opportunities of ſeeing and converſing with his Miſtreſs; he being of the ſaid Lady's Aſſemblee. Every Corner of the Houſe, Garrets, Cellars, nay the very Stair-Caſes were made conſcious of their Amours. But one Day, as ill-Luck would have it, they muſt needs chuſe her Ladyſhip's Bed-Chamber for the Scene of their private Converſations. The Counteſs repairing thither, doubtleſs on ſome Occaſion, found the Door faſt locked; whereat ſurpriſed, ſhe knocked, they anſwered, but the Key was loſt. In a Paſſion ſhe burſt open the Door; when behold! the poor Gallant ſneaking off in ſtrange Confuſion, and the Laſs all rumpled and in the utmoſt Diſorder. The Counteſs's Larum rang very loud at her Maid, for daring to tumble her Bed. This Noiſe brought thither all the Company; and her Ladyſhip has been ſufficiently rallied: Tho' the Wits ſeem to make ſlight of it, as alleging; " That it is no ſuch Wonder for a La- " dy when ſhe begins to grow paſt Gallantry herſelf, to " keep a Nanny-Houſe; adding that this is generally the Fate " of Kept-Miſtreſſes, when they are in Years." What became of the Lovers we know not: But her Ladyſhip is ſaid to change her Servants almoſt as often as her Linnen; not ſo much thro' her own Ficklenеſs, as becauſe none are fond of ſtaying long in her Service.

We hear, that the R. H. Ld. Harrington purchaſed laſt Week, for 8000*l.* the Ld. Chetwynd's Houſe in St. James's Stable-Yard.

Laſt Thurſday, his Majeſty in Council, at Windſor, ordered to be iſſued a Proclamation for the Election of a Peer to ſerve in Parliament, as one of the 16 Scotch Peers, in the room of the E. of Seafield and Finlater deceaſed.

Pref. John Trapps, of the Tower of London, Gent. one of the Company and Corporation of Monyers, for his great Knowledge and Ingenuity, was unanimouſly choſen Provoſt of the Company, in the room of Mr. Rich. Collard of Walthamſtow, lately deceaſed.

Mar. Laſt Thurſday, Mr. John Richards, Son and Heir to a wealthy Spaniſh Merchant of that Name, and of this City, was married to Miſs Galliard of Edmonton.

Deaths. Laſt Wedneſday, died at Bath, of an Apoplexy, John Alleyne Eſq; who had a very large Eſtate in Barbadoes, from which Iſland he arrived about two Months ſince.——The ſame Day, died, at his Houſe, near Turn-Stile in Holborn, Mr. Gill, in his 96th Year: He was many Years a Clerk in the Exciſe-Office and afterwards Meſſenger to the Commiſſioners of the Lottery-Office, Whitehall.——As did, Yeſterday Morn. Mr. Mexſtead, a great Linnen-Draper in Cheapſide, who was juſt upon retiring from Buſineſs, a good Eſtate having fallen to him by his Father's Death: As he died a Batchelor and without a Will, his Effects, &c. revolve to his Relations.

MONDAY, September 21.

At Paris it has been in Council reſolved, and ordered; that all Mourning, that for the Death of a Parent alone excepted, ſhall be retrenched to half the uſual Time, for the Benefit of Trade: And that none but Great State and Military Officers ſhall wear Court-Mourning.

From Edinburgh under the 12th Inſt. they write thus: Yeſterday arrived the Speedwell Buſs from fiſhing Herrings after the Dutch Manner, with about 18 Laſts of that Fiſh; and this Day the other Buſs, the Nonſuch, with about 12 Laſts: Theſe Buſſes were fitted out here laſt June by Mr. Drummond of London, and other Merchants acquainted with the Dutch Methods, and have had as good Succeſs as any of the Dutch Buſſes this Year. The Maſters of the ſaid Buſſes report, that another Buſs, unskilfully fitted at London, had caught only about three Laſts: If this Method of fiſhing be encouraged, conſidering our Situation, we may hope to ſee a better Circulation of Money and Trade than has been for ſome Years paſt. " This well followed, there and here " too, may not be amiſs."

Laſt Thurſday, his Majeſty, in Council, was pleaſed to order, that the Parliament, which ſtands prorogued to the 22d of this Inſtant September, be farther prorogued to Thurſday the 19th of next November.

We hear his Majeſty has alſo been pleaſed to declare his Intention of removing, on or about the 5th of next Month, for three Weeks, from Windſor to Richmond, or, as ſome ſay, to Kenſington.

The South Sea Company's Ship P. Wm. having been meaſured, at Graveſend, on the Part of Spain, by Don Luis Beaufort, and appearing to be ſome Tons under Meaſure (i. e. 750 Tons, of two Malaga Pipes to the Ton) Capt. Cleland, took his Leave of the Court of Directors on Friday laſt, in order to proceed with her forthwith for Cartagena and Porto Bello; and on Saturday a Court of Directors was held for her Diſpatch.——Their Ship P. Frederick, lately arrived from La Vera Cruz, having been examined, is adjudged unfit for farther Service, and is ordered to be broke up.

Friday laſt, about Three, Afternoon, arrived here their Excellencies Horatio Walpole and Steven Pointz, Eſqs; from Paris.

The ſame Day, the eight Turn-pike Collectors, committed to Newgate and the Gate-Houſe, charged with defrauding their Principals of near 600*l.* were examined by the Commiſſioners, and ordered to be diſcharged; paying their Fees.

Her Majeſty, who has been much incommoded with the Gout, is ſo well recovered, that ſhe now takes the Air.

The Earl of Portmore, Lady Mary Wortley-Montagu, Tho. Jones, Eſq; and the celebrated Mrs. Oldfield, who have been much indiſpoſed, are now in a fair Way of Recovery: But it is judged, that the laſt will ſcarce appear on the Stage this Winter; and as Mr. Wilks breaks apace, and Mr. Booth is never like to be ſeen there again, it is feared Drury-Lane Theater will labour under ſome Inconveniences.

Ld. Cha. Cavendiſh, his Grace of Devonſhire's Brother, has obtained the King's Leave to take a ſhort Trip to Paris.

The Lady Selwias, Relict of Sir Gabriel Selwias, a Dutch Knight, who made a conſiderable Figure in the Court of K. Charles II. lies dangerouſly ill at her Houſe in Pall-Mall Court: She had been a Maid of Honour to Catharine Q. Dowager.

Caſual. Saturday laſt, as one Davis, Servant to Mr. Heavyſide, Sugar-Baker, at Ratcliff-Croſs, was craning up a Barrel of Sugar, one of the Hinges of the Pully breaking, it fell and daſhed out his Brains.——Yeſterday, the Son of Mrs. Jones, at the Crown and Pearl in Cornhill, fell off the Houſe on a Back-Room in the King's Head Tavern, and ſo fractured his Skull, that he died about five Hours after.

Rob. &c. Friday Night laſt, about 11, as the Indian Prince was walking in Covent-Garden Square, he was accoſted by a noted Nymph of that Neighbourhood, named Jenny Tite, who amidſt her Dalliances with his ſaid Highneſs, had the Addreſs to get off two of his Rings (I am not ſure he had any more on his Fingers) with which Prize the Harlot made the beſt of her Way: And tho' a Conſtable, with his Poſſe, was inſtantly ſent about to hunt after her in all probable Places, all his Scrutiny was to little Effect. His Highneſs is ſaid to have appeared ſo vexed to be thus bit of his Rings, that ſome are of Opinion, that when this Strumpet comes to Light he will ſcarce intercede for her Releaſe, as his Father gallantly did for her who ſaid ſhe longed for his fine Belt. " Vide our laſt."——Next Night, another pilfering or rather thieviſh Female, was delivered into the Cuſtody of Watchmen in Ruſſel-Street, alſo in Covent-Garden [a ſtill diſorderly Precinct, malgre the indefatigability of Sir John Gonſon and his Seconds] being charged by her Landlady with having plundered her Lodgings of Sheets, and other Moveables.——And the ſame Day, a Perſon repaired to the late Ald. Crowley's Ware-Houſe in Thames-Street, under Pretence of buying a large Quantity of Patten-Rings: Mean while his Companion found Means to move off with 12 Dozen. Being carried before the Ld. Mayor, he was ſent away to Bridewell; and has ſince impeached his Accomplice, who is not yet taken.

Pref. Friday laſt, the E. India Company, made Choice of Fra. Evereſt, Eſq; to be Governor of Fort Marlborough at Bencoolen, on the Iſland of Sumatra ——Mr Evan Bowen, Porter to the Earl of Scarborough, is appointed Porter to the King's Meuſe at Charing-Croſs, in the room of Mr. Tho. Phipps, deceaſed.

Mar. A Marriage is treating between the R. Hon. Earl of Rothes, one of the 16 Peers for Scotland and Lieut. Col. of Sir James Wood's Reg. of Foot, and Miſs Baugh, a very rich Kentiſh Heireſs.

Deaths. Saturday Morn. laſt, died Mr. Tyſon, Meſſenger to the King's Robes, which Place is worth 60 if not 80*l. per Ann.* and is in the Gift of the Maſter of the Robes.—And the ſame Morn. died Mr. Wm. Beſt, Maſter of Will's Coffee-Houſe, Cornhill, a Perſon of exceeding good Character and much beloved.

TUESDAY, September 22.

Amidſt an Infinity of worthy Acts of Juſtice and Goodneſs done by the vigorous old new Pope (who really ſeems to find nothing ſo beautiful and valuable in Power as the Power of doing Good) has ſtrictly injoined all the Nobility, &c. of Rome not to offer to play any more at Faroah or Baſſet, in order to prevent the daily Miſchiefs attending Gaming-Tables: Card. Blanchieri was ſent to notify this Order to the Gentlemen, as was Card. Origbi to the Ladies. It is thought, that what chiefly moved his Holineſs to take this Step was the Loſs of about 8000 Roman Crowns very lately ſuſtained there at one Sitting, by a certain German Count.——Upon this one of our ingenious News-Writers ſmartly remarks: " That were No-" blemen to loſe their Nobility with their Money, theſe Caſes " would not be ſo common." Prince Waldek, a Proteſtant, and a Proteſtant, who made a very fine Figure, and deported himſelf moſt honourably at Rome, and is juſt departed thence, ſuſtained a Loſs alſo, but neither at Cards nor at Dice: It was a Ring of about 5000 Crowns Value, which he miſſed a little before his Departure; which has been ſince accidentally found in the Plait of a young Gentlewoman's Gown, who lives with Baron Mantica, in the ſame Palace where his Highneſs reſided: But ſure none had the Impertinence to aſk, how it came there.——The good Pontiff has likewiſe taken Care, that all his Princes, &c. ſhall, within a limited Time, be obliged off pay all their juſt Debts. Add to all this, his Holineſs is moſt ſtrenuouſly endeavouring the Tranquility of Europe.

Yeſterday Morn. ſeveral not of the moſt orderly Perſons, of both Sexes, apprehended by the Conſtables on Sunday Night, upon Search Warrants, were examined by Sir John Gonſon and the Committee of Juſtices, and ſix of the moſt notorious were packed away to Tothill-Fields Bridewell, to handle the Mallet; the reſt were diſcharged.——The ſame Time a Man and his Wife were ſent to the Gatehouſe, for keeping a diſorderly Houſe at the End of Charles-Street, Covent Garden.

Some Gentlemen in the Fleet have, at their own Expence, made a commodious Mall upon a waſte Piece of Ground there; and propoſe that thoſe who amuſe themſelves thereon, ſhall pay a ſmall Matter to be diſpoſed of in Charities, for the Relief of the indigent Priſoners; it is an innocent and agreeable Recreation, and affords a moderate Exerciſe in the Nature of Billiards.

They write from Ipſwich, that the late Election for Bailiffs of that Town is likely to be conteſted at Law, Sir W. Barker and Mr. Quintin being reſolved to try the Right of 53 diſputable Voices.

Yeſterday Noon, a Girl, about 14 Years of Age, belonging to the Charity School of St. Martin's in the Fields, having abſented herſelf contrary to the Order of the ſaid School, and for fear of being corrected, threw herſelf into the Canal in St. James's Park. A Boy not above ten Years old, ſeeing her, ſtripped, went into the Water, and ſaved her Life. Several Perſons of Diſtinction ſaw it, and hand ſomely rewarded the courageous Lad for his generous Aſſiſtance, and gave Women Money to take Care of the Girl.

We hear there is to be a Walking Match at Bellſize, the 7th of next Month, for a Plate of five Guineas for the firſt Man, and one Guinea for the ſecond Man; as many as will may ſtart, except Tho. Butler and Aaron Newbolt, the Walking Poſterer: They are to walk with a Stick or a Cane 30 Times round the Courſe, which is about 20 Miles the Heat.

We have the following odd Account of a very ſad Fellow, one James Brooks, a Soldier of Col. Otway's Reg. of Foot, ſhot for Deſertion, the 14th Inſt. at Dublin. His Behavior from the Provoſt-Marſhalſea to the Place of Execution was ſuch as has ſcarce ever been heard of: He continued curſing and execrating all the Way thence to the Green, and invoking Vengeance on all the Officers, without Exception; ſome he mentioned by Name, ſaying, they were gone before him to Hell, and others he hoped to drag along with him, where he propoſed to have an Opportunity of being on a Level with them, if not advanced to greater Power: in a Word, he ſeemed pleaſed to think he ſhould have an Opportunity of revenging himſelf on his Enemies, and died more like a Devil than a Man: [Quere; do Devils die?] Before he came out, he burnt his Shirt and Shoes, as a Lunatic, in Hopes that and his brutal Deportment would ſave him: But at the Place of Execution, where, for an Hour, he ſtill continued to behave moſt unaccountably, the firſt Men who fired at him as he ſtood, miſſing him on Purpoſe, he was ſo ſhocked [as all Atheiſts infallibly are at the Approach of Danger] that he immediately fell down to pray, and begged Time to call for Mercy; and in a few Moments after was ſhot dead. After the Execution, a Grenadier, who was the forwardeſt to diſpatch him in his repenting Moments, was himſelf apprehended, as a Deſerter, by Capt. Montgomery, from whom he ran away about two Years ago, with his Arms and Clothing, juſt as the Regiments were imbarking for Gibraltar.

And from Berwick they write, that ſome Days ſince died there the famous Margaret Dickſon, who was hanged about ſix Years paſt at Edinburg: On Receit of which good News, her Husband took up his Trump, and entertained the Town of Muſſelburgh with Muſic, Dancing, &c. for a whole Day.

Caſual. Laſt Saturday Mr. Shorter, living near Ockingham, quarreling with a Neighbour about loading their Carts, unfortunately killed him, with an accidental Blow on the Head with an Iron Tug-Pin which he took from his own Cart. He is now in Reading Jail.

Rob. &c. Laſt Saturday, towards Evening, a Female, low of Stature, in a paſſable good Habit, went into the Shop of Mr. Smith, Mercer, near Aldgate, under Pretence of buying ſomething: They ſhewed her divers Pieces, but ſhe came not to any Agreement, and departed, it cannot be ſaid without making any Purchaſe; for a Three-Pint Silver Tankard vaniſhed, undoubtedly under her Riding-Hood. ——Sunday Night, between Nine and Ten, Mr. Cox, Saleſman of Monmouth-Street, returning home from Highgate, was attacked, near Copenhagen-Houſe, by two Foot-Pads, who robbed him of his Watch and ſome Silver.——And Yeſterday one Margaret Dickenſon was ſent to Newgate, charged with ſtealing three Pieces of Ribbon from one Mr. Oakley.

Births. Between Three and Four Yeſterday Morn. her Grace of Somerſet was, at Northumberland-Houſe, ſafely delivered of a Daughter.

Deaths. Died lately, at Rotterdam, Capt. Sam. Taylor, of the Delight Sloop, a noted Holland Trader.——As did the 18th Inſt. at Norwich, much regretted, Edw. Coleburne, Eſq; Sheriff of that City, in 1717 and Mayor in 1720. ——Alſo, on the ſame Day, died at Litchfield, the Rev. Dr. Walmſley, Dean of that Cathedral, exceedingly lamented,——Yeſterday died Mr. Geo. Coulſon, one of his Majeſty's Footmen.

WEDNESDAY, September 16.

The Greenwich, Cap. Bookie, lately arrived in the River from E. India, has been ſeized by an Exchequer Writ, obtained by ſome Cuſtom-Houſe Officers, an Account of her not conforming to the Act of Navigation. It ſeems ſo many of her Men either died or deſerted in India, as neceſſitated them to hire a Number of Indians to help bring her home, and thoſe Indians exceeding one fourth Part of her Company, is the Foundation of this Seizure; by which Means the Ship is kept at a great Expence, and the Company prevented from getting their Goods, which they want for their Sale, which begins next Week.

Some Maſters of Ships, arrived from the Baltick report, that they ſaw a Ship on Shore, which they believed would be loſt, and they apprehended her to be the Succeſs, Capt. Haſlam, from Petersburg for Hull.

Her Majeſty has ſettled 30*l. per Ann.* on Stephen Duck, late a Threſher in a Barn at Clarendon Park in Wiltſhire, and likewiſe given him a little Houſe in Richmond-Park, on account of his ſeveral ingenious Poetical Compoſitions. He was brought firſt to Court by the Hon. Mrs. Clayton.

The late Rich. Topham, Eſq; did by his Will bequeath his Library, worth above 7000*l.* to the Cotton Library at Oxford.

Thurſday laſt the Hon. Col. Johnſon received his Inſtructions, and was ſworn at Windſor. He afterwards took Leave of their Majeſties and the Royal Family, he intending to imbark ſome Time next Week on Board his Majeſty's Ship Fox, at Portſmouth, for his Government of South-Carolina.——And next Friday our ſo-often-mentioned Indian Gueſts, who are under the ſaid Governor's Care, and are to go with him, will have a very ſplendid Farewel-Entertainment given them, at Pontack's, by divers Merchants trading to their Country.——" N. B. Theſe Americans " were not at Croydon Fair, laſt Monday, notwithſtanding " the circumſtantial Accounts publiſhed Yeſterday of the " Coach and four Horſes, elegant Dinner prepared for them " at the George, their plentiful Deſſert of Sack and Walnuts, " as is the Cuſtom of that Place, the vaſt and more than " uſual Concourſe of People on that Occaſion: Now therefore, as they were not, as we are aſſured at Croydon, it " muſt certainly have been ſomewhere elſe that King Ouka " muſt have been pleaſed to expreſs; That he had not been " better diverted ſince his Arrival in England."

As his late Grace of Cleveland, by his Will, appointed the Dukes of Somerſet, Montagu, Bolton, Kent, Chandos and Argyll to ſupport his Pall, the Solemnization of his Funeral is deferred till the Arrival of thoſe ſix Knights-Companions of the moſt Noble Order of the Garter. His Grace of Somerſet arrived Yeſterday, from his Seat at Petworth in Suſſex, with a great Retinue, to congratulate his Dutcheſs on her ſafe Delivery, as above.

Mr. Watſon, the Printer, is admitted to Bail.

Mr. Stubington of Chelſea has laid a Wager of ten Guineas with a Brother-Gardiner of Brompton, that he, the ſaid Mr. Stubington will raiſe a Sallad while a Shoulder of Mutton is roaſting to eat with it, to roaſt which one Hour and three Quarters is allowed; This is to be tranſacted, next Friday, at the Bell, in Brompton.

Sir John Gonſon [who, to his immortal Praiſe be it ſpoken, ſeems determined to give the Unrighteous no more Reſt than a certain Turkiſh Prime-Miniſter obſerved the French gave their Hats] took proper Care, Yeſterday Morn. to provide Lodging and Entertainment, in Tothill-Bridewell, for two other remarkable Nymphs of the Hundreds, viz. Mrs. Anne Ford and Mrs. Anne Hutton; where, how great ſoever their Diſlike may be to their Employment, yet they are ſure of meeting with abundance of their Acquaintance.

Rob. &c. About Seven, one Evening laſt Week, Patrick Bale, Servant to Cha. Delafaye, Eſq; coming from the D. of Newcaſtle's Office, with Diſpatches to London, was attacked in the Long Lane beyond Hounſlow Heath, by two Highwaymen, who robbed him of 10*s.*——And at the ſame Time the ſame Rogues, near the ſame Place, took from a Farmer of Colebrook 17*l.* with which Booty as they were making off, recollecting that his Coat Buttons looked like Plate (as they indeed were) they turned Head and had the Patience to cut them off, which done, away the Adventuers ſcoured.

Pref. Dr. Newcomb, Chaplain in Ordinary to his Majeſty, is appointed Dean of Glouceſter, in the room of Dr. Alix, promoted to the Deanery of Ely, void by the Death of Dr. Frankland.——Sunday laſt was held an Ordination in his Majeſty's Royal Chapel at St. James's; when four Prieſts and ſeven Deacons were ordained, by the Ld. Bp. of London.——The ſame Even. at the Meeting-Place in Petty-France, the Rev. Mr John Allen, of Nailſworth in Glouceſterſhire, was elected Paſtor, in the room of the late Rev. Dr. John Evans, deceaſed.——The Lds. of the Admiralty, laſt Saturday, commiſſioned his Majeſty's Ship Garland, and gave the Command thereof to Capt. Cockett.——Mr. Peter Fotheringale, a Domeſtic of the Earl of Scarborough, ſucceeds the lately deceaſed Mr. Geo. Coulton, as one of his Majeſty's Footmen.

Deaths. Laſt Monday died, at Iſlington, Mr. Oliver Ainge, formerly a Gentleman of the Law, but retired from Buſineſs.——Died lately in France the Hon. Dan. Deering, Eſq; Auditor to his R. H. the P. of Wales, and firſt Commiſſioner of the Wine Licences. He went over hence about a Month ago, accompanied by his Lady.——The 12th Inſt. died the Lady of the Hon. John Vaughan, Eſq; of Shenfield-Place, in Eſſex.—Between Three and Four, Yeſterday Morn. died, at Carſhalton in Surrey, Sir Tho. Scawen, Alderman of Cornhill Ward. He was formerly in the Direction of the Bank, and one of the Repreſentatives in Parl. for this City, in 1714, and would have been Ld. Mayor ſome Years ago, had he not purpoſely ſhunned ſerving the Office of Sheriff. John Salter, Eſq; a very eminent Linnen-Draper, is this Morn. unanimouſly elected Alderman of the ſaid Ward, in his Stead. And the ſame Morn. died, at his Houſe in Mark-Lane, of the Gout in his Head, Sir Peter Eaton, Lieut. Col. of the Yelloes Reg. and a Common-Council for Tower-Ward.

THURSDAY, September 17.

Legborn, Sept. 16. N. S. Since the 9th the Imperial Embaſſador arrived here from Rome, and is gone to Lucca. A German Officer alſo has been permitted to inſpect the Condition of our Fortifications; yet we are aſſured that the Spaniards will not make any Viſit to us this Year, tho' they are fully determined to undertake ſomething: And from Rom they write, that the Duke of Savoy, King of Sardinia, who has resigned his Dominions to his Son, has actually sold the said Kingdom to the King of Spain; if so, it is very probable they design to Winter in that Island, in order to be nearer at Hand in the Spring.

Barcelona, Sept. 17. N. S. Yesterday arrived a French Tartan, whose Master affirms that he saw, about 12 Leagues to the Eastward, near Cape Thoulon, 20 Sail of Spanish Men of War, 18 of which sailed hence the 10th, and two the 11th Inst. which is Matter of very great Surprise to us; for it was here generally believed that they were bound to Cadiz; but now we are at a Loss to know where they are going, or on what Design; for they had no Troops on Board. There is now no more Talk of discharging the Transports, but on the contrary, it is said, that in case the Expedition be deferred till Spring, they will be continued in the Service, that nothing may impede the executing of it as early as the Season will permit: The imbarking heavy Cannon, &c. on the Transports is again renewed, and those designed to carry Horse are completely fitted; also the Water Casks are all ready seasoned; so that on a very short Notice the Fleet may be dispatched. They continue paying the Hire of the Transports very punctually.

Cadiz, Sept. 12. N. S. Here are four Ships of the Fleet from La Vera Cruz yet unladen; and as the Court is not yet come to Port Santa Maria, the Affair of the Indults and delivering the Effects is not yet determined, which, tho' we have all imaginable Reason to hope will be fixed to our Content, yet as the Times are unsettled, the Fear of some unforeseen Accident to offend our Court, and thereby to retard the Delivery, &c. makes us very impatient. Here still remain 13 Transports.

The 9th Inst. arrived a Vessel from Florida, which brings no News from any other Place in West-India, and only a Packet for the King. All we learn is, that the Indians of those Quarters are up, and prove very troublesome to the Spaniards; and, as it is supposed here, are assisted from South Carolina with Arms and Ammunition.

Example, they say, is better than Precept: Out of a very considerable Number of lewd, idle Persons lately taken up by the City-Marshals, attended by Constables, &c. more than 30 were, by the Ld. Mayor, sent to work at the Block in Bridewell, some in fine Silver-trimmed Cloaths; and to-morrow, at the Court held there, divers of them may be seen receiving the Correction of the House.

Money is sent this Morn. to Deptford, to pay off his Majesty's Ship Shoreham.

The Princess-Royal, at a late Stag-hunting, in pulling off her Glove lost a Diamond Ring, value 100l. presented her by his Majesty.

The King having been frequently disturbed in his Solitude in the Little Park at Windsor, by rude Petitioners, and particularly Sunday last by a German Woman, who grew very outrageous when she was told that it was an improper Place to present Petitions in; the Guard there is now doubled, to prevent any Insults of that Nature for the future.

Next Monday they begin upon the Serpentine River and Royal Manson in Hide-Park; Mr. Ripley is to build the House, and Mr. Jepherson to make the River, under the Directions of Cha. Withers, Esq;

We hear, that the Drawing of the present Lottery at the Hague, is deferred till the 19th of October next; and that Tickets in that, or the Utrecht Lottery, which will begin Drawing on Monday next, may be procured, registered, or examined, and the Prizes discounted, at Bridge's Coffee-House in Cornhill.

Casual. Last Tuesday, a Pole fell from a Booth in Smithfield, and dashed out the Brains of a Carpenter employed in taking down the said Booth.

Reb. &c. Committed Yesterday to Newgate, by the Ld. Mayor, Eliz. Williams, for picking a Gentleman's Pocket of his Silver Watch, 5s. and a Handkerchief.

Pref. Whatever has been reported to the contrary, David Polhill, Esq; Mem. of Parl. for Rochester (whose Brother is a Commissioner of the Excise) is appointed Keeper of the Tower Records, in the room of Rich. Topham, Esq; deceased: It is also strongly presumed, that he will be rechosen Representative for Rochester.——The E. India Directors have given to Capt. David Wilkie (one of their last Supercargoes) the Command of their Ship Heathcote, in the room of Capt. Tolson, who has resigned.

Mar. We hear, that a Marriage is treating between the R. Hon. Earl of Grantham, and the Lady Isabella Finch, Sister to the R. Hon. Earl of Nottingham, and Lady of the Bed-Chamber to her R. H. the Princess-Royal.

Deaths. Tuesday Night last, died suddenly, in a very advanced Age, at her House in Albemarle-Street, the Lady Hariot Vere, Daughter of the late Aubrey de Vere, Earl of Oxford, and Sister to the Dowager Dutchess of St. Albans.——As did Yesterday Morn. at Mile-End, John Elwick, Esq; formerly one of the E. India Company's Directors, and Brother of Nathaniel Elwick, Esq; not long since Governor of Fort St. George, in E. Indias.

By a French Mail, which came Yesterday, we learn, among other Matters, that the young Dauphin has lately taken a Walk on the Grass, in the Park of Versailles: That on weighing the two great Bells cast for his Portuguese Majesty at Paris, they were found to contain only 40,000 Weight of Metal, whereas the Founder had charged them at so much each; (a strange Blunder!) and on re-weighing the four smaller ones, they were found so deficient, that the Artist is caged up in Fort L'Evêque, till he gives Account what is become of 60, or 70,000lb. Weight of the King of Portugal's Bell-Metal: And that a very honest, good-natured Priest, who had performed many notable Cures in Surgery, all gratis, was so barbarously cudgelled in the Road to Versailles, by three young Surgeons (who owed him a Grudge on that Score) that the 23d Inst. he died of his Bruises: Great Search is making after them; the King protesting they shall find very little Mercy, if ever they come to Light.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Arrived Mails.——Friday; three from Flanders.——Sunday; one from France and one from Holland.——Monday; one from Flanders and one from Holland.——Tuesday; one from Flanders.——Wednesday; one from France.

MOSCO, Aug. 31. Prince Don Manoel, his Portuguese Majesty's Brother, departed hence on the 27th for Germany, having received of the Empress a Present of a Gold Sword set with Diamonds. His Royal Highness has likewise very handsomely gratified those who attended him during his Stay here. Gen. Lewenwold has received, among others, a Present of a Diamond Ring valued at 3000 Rubles: He is to be accompanied to Petersburg, and from thence to Mittau, by the Great Chamberlain Bant, and by M. Freyden and Putckin, Gentlemen of the Chamber.——We daily expect here an Embassador from the Great Mogul, and the Empress has ordered 50 Men to guard and conduct him, from Tobolski, to this City. Orders are sent to Veronitz for imbarking the 2000 Men designed for Astracan, and to send them away the beginning of next Month. Forty Pieces of fine Brass Cannon, and a great Quantity of Powder will be sent from hence to Veronitz, as is said, for a Present to Shah Thamash, the victorious King of Persia. The 8th arrived here an Officer from Derbent, dispatched by Gen. Lewaschan, with an ample Account of what has passed to this Time, between the Troops of the said Persian Monarch and the Ottoman Forces in Persia. Among other Remarkables, the Turkish Seraskier, after the Battel, 12 Leagues from Tauris, in which he lost 30,000 Men, durst not incamp under the Fortifications of that Town, for fear of being cut off, but separated his Army into small Bodies, and was retired 30 Leagues back, in order to wait there for the Succours which are actually in March; Shah Thamash was gone in Person from Ispahan, with a considerable Train of Artillery towards Tauris, in order to take it before the Arrival of the said Succours.

Copenhagen, Sept. 12. The Court is still at Odensee, tho' his Danish Majesty would gladly remove hither was he able: For the Swelling begins to shift from his Leg and mount higher; which as it daily increases, it is feared may turn to a Dropsy. One of his Majesty's Physicians is gone to attend him.——It is given out, that our Princess-Royal is again pregnant. Our Fleet, next Spring, may consist of 38 Line of Battel Ships, 10 Frigats and 36 Gallies.——A Decree is here published, strictly injoining all our Merchants trading to Portugal or Spain, not to send out any Vessel not mounted, at the very least, with 18 Guns, and proportionably manned, to be able to make some Stand against the Corsairs of Barbary.

Stockholm. Sept. 14. We hear from Sammal Carleby, in Finland, that a Forest there having, none knows how, taken Fire, the Flames made such a dreadful Progress, that a whole District of 18 Leagues Circumference, with all the Churches and other Buildings therein are reduced to Ashes, insomuch that the Misery and Desolation of the wretched Inhabitants are inexpressible.

Leghorn. Sept. 9. This Day we received Letters from Ajazzo, in Corsica, dated the 5th Inst. importing, that the Corsi Malecontents have made horrible Ravages all around the Neighbourhood of that City, tearing up the Vines, &c. driving away the Cattle, and committing innumerable other Disorders; insomuch that, notwithstanding the Republic's Concessions, the Troubles of that Island are not so near being quieted as the Genoueses had flattered themselves.

Viena, Sept. 14. It is now reported, that the Allies of Seville have resolved to defer their Expedition till next Spring; in Hopes that during the Winter, some Expedient may be found for terminating amicably the Differences between this Court and that of Spain. However they add, that the said Court will not put a Stop to the sending away of the Fleet with the Troops of Imbarcation to take Post in some Place or other near that Coast. There is much Talk of a new Congress which is to be held for terminating the Points in Question; and it is assured, that the Pope will send a Minister Plenipotentiary to act in Quality of a Mediator.——A few Days past, the Emperor gave Audience to six Peasants of Moravia, who humbly represented the Impossibility of subsisting their Families, as being obliged to work three Days in the Week for their Ecclesiastical Lords and three for the Public: His Imp. Majesty graciously allowed them two Days in the Week to work for themselves!

Paris, Sept. 22. The Report which was spread of 6000 Spaniards being sailed from Barcelona, was without Foundation. Most Part of the Plenipotentiaries are preparing to return home; which makes it believed that the Congress of Soissons is quite over; but that the Embassadors who usually reside here, will be ordered to continue their Negociations, in case that any Proposition be made for an Accommodation, particularly with respect to the preventing a War in Italy. In the mean Time the grand Expedition projected is deferred till next Spring; and they continue to assure us, that if Spain sends away this Year any Troops, it will only be to reinforce the Garrisons of the Places which they possess on the Frontiers of Tuscany.——This Day was executed M. Debeer, Governor of the Duke of Bathunes Sons, convicted of having robbed that Nobleman to a very considerable Value: The Duke generously interceded in his Favour; but his Majesty would not pardon so treacherous an Action.—As for M. Compotier, who went off from Rochelle with a great Sum of the Public Money, and was brought from a Foreign Country, he has subsisted on only the Conciergeria Prison Allowance, during the 15 Days he has been there, as refusing to petition the Chamber of Accounts, who manage his Prosecution, to grant him a Subsistance out of his Estate which they have seized.——Three Proofs have been lately made of the Gold Mine discovered in Dauphiné; and it is found to yield sufficient to answer the Working. We learn from Lisbon, that they have received Advice there from the Bay of All-Saints, that the Arabs of Africa have retaken the Fortress of Mombaza, after a Siege of eight Months.——From Turin we learn, that, on the 12th Inst. his late Sardinian Majesty's Nuptials, with Madam S. Sebastian, were celebrated: And that great Preparations are making for the new King's Coronation.

Viena, Sept. 16. His Imperial Majesty has given Orders for four light Brigantines to be stationed at Trieste, in order to send two of them every Week to Naples and Sicily, that the Court by that Means may have Intelligence of what passes by Sea or Land in Italy. The Governors of Belgrade, Temeswaer, and other Places, assure our Court, that not only half of the Turks Garrisons of Nissa and Widdin were defiled towards Adrianople, but also 20000 Albanians were marched thither; so that the Emperor had nothing to fear on that Side. Mean-time we do not yet hear that any Troops are to march out of Hungary to Italy, because the Imperial Power there is already so formidable, as to be able to make Head against any Enemies whatsoever. Prince Eugene has, by an Officer, dispatched from Count Mercy, received the following Report touching the Disposition and Posting of the Troops; and particularly, that the said Count had thought fit to post in the Milanese, especially on the Frontiers of Piemont, 16000 Men, besides those in the Garrisons, which could be drawn together in 48 Hours, in order to observe the Motions of the Troops of the King of Sardinia, which had already begun to approach towards the Milanese. That the Gross of the Army, consisting of 24000 Men, lay on the Frontiers of Tuscany, Parma, and other States; so that no Descent could be made on the Coast of Tuscany, but with great Difficulty; and farther, that the said Court had come to an Agreement with the Viceroys of Naples and Sicily, and the People of those Kingdoms; that in case the Spanish Fleet designed to attack Sicily, all the Gallies and Transports should lie in Readiness, in order to carry over thither the necessary Succours with all possible Speed. This Officer also reported, that by the Alteration of the Climate, and the strong Wines which the German Soldiers were not used to, above 1000 had died of the Flux. Prince Eugene has signified to the Envoy of Genoua, that it behoved the Senate to guard against the Spaniards making a Descent on Corsica, the Consequence whereof may be very fatal to the Republic.

Amsterdam, Sept. 28. A Passenger out of the Ship of Steven van Lindt reported this Afternoon upon Exchange, that the said Skipper was visited the 18th Inst. four Miles from Hyzand, by three Algerine Rovers, one the Fountain, of 50 Guns and 600 Men, which two Days before took a Hamburgher, named also the Fountain.

Paris, Sept. 22. It is said, that the last Propositions made by the Emperor to the Allies of Seville, are in Substance, That the Infante Don Carlos may henceforward be at Liberty to fix his Residence in what Place he thinks fit in Tuscany, Parma, or Placentia, except where the reigning Princes have their own Residence: That his said Royal Highness may keep with him a Guard of 3 or 400 Spaniards, but shall have no other Troops besides those which shall be necessary for the Garrison of Porto Longone: That all the other Differences between his Imperial Majesty, and the Allies of Seville, shall be terminated in a Congress, in three Months after the Ratification of this Accommodation, &c. Some, however, pretend, that the Spaniards will not accept of these Proposals, and persist in keeping to the Literal Sense of the Treaty of Seville, with respect to the Introduction of 6000 Spaniards.

Copenhagen, Sept. 23. Yesterday Prayers were said in all the Churches of this Capital, for the speedy Recovery of the King, who is still very ill at Odensee.
